WASHINGTON, DC — The Alliance for Longevity Initiatives (A4LI) is excited to announce its inaugural D.C. Fly-In event, set for March 21, 2024. This groundbreaking event aims to unite leading scientists, policymakers, and industry influencers, all committed to advancing legislative and policy initiatives that promote a healthy human lifespan.

The D.C. Fly-In will serve as a dynamic platform for critical conversations between policymakers and the frontrunners in the longevity biotech industry. Through these dialogues, A4LI seeks to foster mutual understanding and collaboration, which are essential for catalyzing policy development that supports advancements in longevity biotechnology.

This event marks a significant milestone in our collective journey towards political action aimed at extending healthy human lifespans. We eagerly anticipate the outcomes and future directions that will emerge from this assembly.

Thank you for your continued support, and A4LI looks forward to you all on Capitol Hill this March.
